

The Indiana Telephone Privacy Law has been an excellent law. It has eliminated unwanted calls from companies and their sales forces. Our evenings were becoming intolerable with an average of 8 calls per night--usually during our supper hour. The law helped give our family better quality time together without useless, often rude, interruptions. Please do not do not allow an exemption to be granted. Thank you for your time and consideration.